Digital Marketing Manager

Description

Join a thriving IT consultancy and help drive their next growth phase as their digital marketing manager. You'll report to the Marketing Director and be responsible for implementing strategy and working independently on a range of marketing campaigns.

The role is initially a fixed-term contract with a view to join the business as a full-time employee. Possibly freelance opportunity as well so please throw your hat in the ring if you are a freelancer.

Flexible working, currently two days a week in the office.

Responsibilities

What you'll be doing...

- Manage and implement pre-defined digital marketing strategy.
- Implement and expand on existing strategies to help drive new leads for the Sales teams to engage with through website development, paid media, email automation, webinars, and event management.
- Manage other marketing teams members while working alongside our sales/technical teams to ensure seamless interactions for lead follow-up, lead development and reporting.
- Use HubSpot to: develop existing website, build new email communications, social posts, landing pages, nurture workflows, analytical dashboards, blogs, and other campaign assets.
- Fill the top of the funnel with quality leads and design/manage nurture programs per service to move the lead down the funnel journey.
- Help develop and support the current marketing team in the implementation of all in-house go-to-market activities.
- Implement cross/up-sell customer initiatives to add further value to the customer, team & wider business.
- Develop a good working relationship across all departments.
- Ensure knowledge share & best practice are common practice.
- Challenge the status quo, acting as a positive role for innovation.
- Undertake self-study and learning to improve knowledge of marketing techniques.
