Ecommerce Marketing Manager – 3 days a week flexible working

Description

Can you help an E-commerce agency grow? Talented marketing manager with agency experience required.

I'm looking for a marketing expert with a strategic approach, able to recommend a strategy at board level and to enact it. You'll be an account focussed marketer used to work in a medium-sized agency. This is an E-commerce agency so you should be data-savvy and be all-embracing to different marketing approaches – events, case study writing, content creation and enjoy working with a talented marketing exec to help this agency fly.

Salary is £30 – £40K pro rata and dependent on experience.

Super bunch of people who deliver great results for their clients.
